"It has been a great pleasure and honour to have had America's #1 Travel Radio Show with us at the Milestone Hotel & Residences. RMWorldTravel's Robert & Mary Carey are consummate hosts and not only do they get luxury travel but they also understand how hotels operate and the interaction with an operational hotel team. It's been great fun and every one of my team who have had the chance to engage with them have loved their professionalism, warmth and positivity. Having them showcase London from our amazing English Mansion property has been wonderful! They are great ambassadors for Red Carnation Hotels!"

“You may recall I wrote previously asking how can you do a big “Let's Go America! Tour” in Rome or Cancun or Lisbon and today I tuned-in and there you were on my radio in London! Knowing your thoughtful response from my past writing I had to send this note today to say I now get it fully!!! (lol!!!!) As you say it is get out from behind the desk, get off the sofa and get out there and experience the world! I have only been to London 1 time for a business conference and had just a day to hit some top tourist spots we all know here in the U.S., but I have to say you have stoked me to go back and explore Kensington Gardens, the V&A, Harrods, and that Spy Tour sound most intriguing. I love your show and you have made me a better traveler! Can't wait to hear next week as your United Kingdom travels continue. Think about coming to see us sometime in Phoenix, you'll love it here too!”

“I'm sure it will be years off but when you retire I want your job!!! You guys are awesome and I love listening to America's #1 Travel Radio Show! I've told people at work, in our PTA and various friends about your show. I can always tell how much you love to travel and all that you know amazes me. How do you find the time? I especially love when you take the show on the road as it kinda feels like I get to be there with you! My husband and I have gone to Santa Barbara and San Antonio because of your broadcasts, and am talking to friends about Charleston next year. Like you Mary, I also have English blood, and I found the London show so very interesting. My family is from a small place south of Birmingham called Dorridge, and after my husband retires we're going! I took good notes to see all the places you talked about, and had no idea London was considered a forest. I only get info like this from you! Thanks for a great show, like our station says it's Real Radio!”

Today is Day 4 on the big "Let's Go America! Tour" - London, and we spent time in the West End exploring Covent Garden and many of its varied British shops and brands, taking-in some of the street performances -- and getting reacquainted with the restaurant scene there. This vibrant hub is also the site of the London Museum of Transport, which we took time to visit and experience all that it offers. Here you'll see the history of London Transport from the 19th century up to the most recent addition of the Elizabeth line... Join us on Saturday as we broadcast America's #1 Travel Radio Show live from Red Carnation's Milestone Hotel & Residences from 10a-12p ET via 1 of our 575+ weekly stations across the USA or you can also TuneIn via the live stream at www.RMWorldTravel.com #travel #coventgarden #london #MuseumOfTransport

Day 5 on RMWorldTravel's big "Let's Go America! Tour" - London had us visiting some of the terrific nearby museums and enjoying the South Kensington neighborhood. The Natural History Museum, Science Museum and V&A (The Victoria & Albert Museum) are all within a short 10 minute walk of Red Carnation's Milestone Hotel and Residence -- as is Japan House --another cultural venue we visited today as well. Tomorrow is the Grand Finale as we broadcast America's #1 Travel Radio Show live from 10a-12p ET via satellite to our 575+ weekly stations across the USA. We have a terrific lineup of guests to join us on-set, so TuneIn on your local radio affiliate or via the live stream on our website at www.RMWorldTravel.com #LetsGoAmerica Paul Gauger Amanda Byrne Anthony Pickles Rob Wallbank Andrew Pike Jonathan Raggett Sofia Botta VisitBritain
