“I don't often write the shows I listen to, but have always wanted to go to Alaska and learned a lot from listening to your broadcasts from there Robert & Mary. Thank you! Sounds like you had a truly great time and I'm more stoked on going there now then ever! Some of the places you visited I had never heard of and it's made me want to learn more and I'm enjoying it. I heard you talk about traveling to Anchorage previously, can you share more with me about that city? You're an integral part of my weekend as I look forward to hearing you on my radio every Saturday...”

“I have listened with interest to your Alaska shows as my ex and I did a cruise a few years ago now on Royal Caribbean and I can tell you it was nothing like what you've been sharing. What a difference! We had a window that didn't open in our cabin, you're in the Penthouse! We waited on long lines to eat average food, you're having caviar and Champagne! We were bused around larger cities like farm animals while you're in what sounds like non-commercial tiny towns and kayaking in fjords! Will you be doing another cruise that has listeners aboard with you? Please share info as I'd be interested in looking it over. You both have the best job!”

“We really enjoyed your Virginia Beach and Williamsburg travels earlier this year, and hearing about everywhere you've gone and everything you've done in Alaska has also been very special as I spent time at Fort Wainwright. My uncle is the Mayor of a nearby town, so particularly liked hearing from the Mayor of Ketchikan when you visited there. Did I hear you say that Hawaii is next?...”

A close-up photograph of a brown bear sitting in the water, holding and eating a large salmon. The bear's head is in the foreground, and its paws are visible as it grips the fish. The water is dark and rippled.

A large white ferry ship is docked at a wooden pier. Two men are standing on the pier in the foreground. The ship has multiple decks and a prominent radar dome. The sky is blue with some clouds. In the bottom left corner, there is a small inset photo of a man inside a vehicle, looking towards the camera.

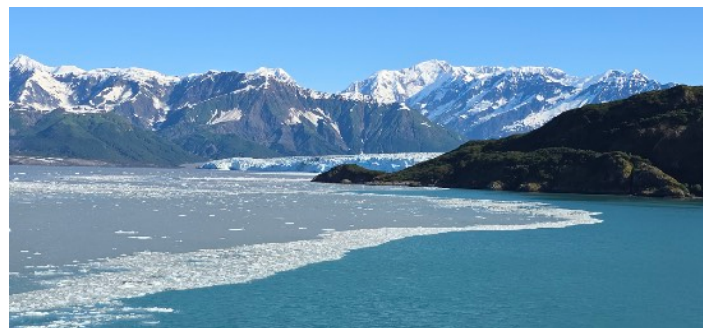

10 days into the big "Let's Go America! Tour" - Alaskan Cruise brought Robert & Mary Carey and the show fans traveling with them to Wrangell, Alaska... This frontier town is located near the mouth of the wild Stikine River and is a well-known fishing destination. Once off the ship The Careys visited Petroglyph Beach, hiked up Mount Dewey, spent time at Alaska's oldest Catholic Parish, St. Rose of Lima, and explored the community. Onboard the Seabourn Quest the evening was filled with a private cocktail party, a delicious Alaskan Salmon dinner and entertainment by pianist and composer Roy Tan. All of this and more will be shared when Robert & Mary broadcast America's #1 Travel Radio Show live from Alert Bay this Saturday, August 23rd, from 10a-12p ET via satellite to our 610 weekly stations across the USA.
