“Maui Visitors & Convention Bureau was thrilled to welcome Robert & Mary Carey of RMWorldTravel back to Maui Nui. Collaborating with them is always a wonderful opportunity to share the unique stories of Maui and Lānaʻi with travelers eager to connect with our aloha spirit. Their professionalism, energy, and genuine interest in our destination and partners make for engaging, heartfelt conversations that beautifully capture the essence of Maui Nui. We deeply appreciate their support in inspiring compassionate travel that connects visitors with our culture and uplifts our community.”

“This is the second time I’ve written words of praise to my travel beacons, Robert & Mary Carey! I’ve heard you talking about the return to Maui, and can’t tell you enough how proud it makes me that you have featured our part of paradise for 5 straight years. We need all the visitors we can get, as things are not what they once were here, so as the Mom of a few kids who are involved in tourism and hospitality on the island, a big Mahalo and Aloha kākou iā ‘oukou Robert & Mary!”

“Go Careys! Energizer has nothing on you (lol)!! Love all the energy you guys bring and how you can pivot from talking seriously in detail with a well credentialed guest one minute, to a commoner the next. RJ needs to be on these tours, have his agent fight for it! (lol)”

“...Really enjoyed hearing your shows from Alaska in August, and agree with something you said about both the Alaskan and Hawaiian people sharing a similarity in having a connection to their respective cultures. America is blessed to have both as States!!”

- Maui 2025

A collage of nine photographs from a vacation at Mama's Fish House. The top left photo shows a man and a woman in white shirts standing on a beach. The top right photo is a close-up of the restaurant's sign, which reads "MAMA'S FISH HOUSE" in a rustic, hand-painted style. Below the sign are two photos of food: a bowl of soup and a plate of lobster. The middle left photo shows a plate of lobster and a bowl of soup. The middle right photo shows a night view of palm trees. The bottom left photo shows a couple standing in front of the restaurant entrance.
